

With the uncertain financial times being faced across the country, Adams Bank & Trust will hold a series of economic outlook forums at their branches in Grant, Indianola and Imperial.

The first forum will be held at the Grant branch at 155 Central on Wednesday, Jan. 21, beginning with a lunch at 12 noon and running to 2 p.m. MT.

Chad Adams, president of Adams Bank & Trust, will lead the forums. Topics will include market volatility, interest rate outlook, insights into the state of the banking industry, and more.

John Paisley of Imperial, south region president of Adams Bank & Trust, said each forum will serve as a relevant and engaging seminar for all who attend.

“As the president of a $400 million bank, Chad had tremendous insight and expertise within the financial markets, agricultural markets and banking industry,” Paisley said.

“I think everyone who attends will be impressed by the information presented,” Paisley added.

The forum at the branch in Indianola will be held Thursday, Jan. 29 with lunch at 12 noon and running to 2 p.m. CT.

A forum is also being planned in Imperial in February, with the date still pending.

People planning to attend the Grant forum can RSVP by calling 352-2114.
