

By Carolyn Lee

The Imperial Republican

As of Monday, there are now four McNairs working at McNair Agency, Inc. Sam McNair joined the insurance agency as a property and casualty, crop/hail agent. He will also handle administrative work.

McNair, 29, was employed by Allied and Nationwide Company in Lincoln for five years. He was a personal lines underwriter and a home and auto liability claim agent.

An Imperial native, McNair graduated from Wesleyan University in Lincoln in 2002 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Sociology and a minor in criminal justice.

He and wife Abby moved to Imperial two weeks ago. Their daughters are Aliana, 4; Ava, 2 and Aria, 10 months.

McNair enjoys any competitive sport, hunting and his children.

He is the son of Pat McNair and grandson of Jean McNair, as well as brother of Alex McNair, who are all involved with McNair Agency.