

Rainbow Promise Preschool orientation and registration night will be Monday, Aug. 29. Preschoolers and parents are invited to come at 5 p.m., 6 p.m. or 7 p.m. to attend a short orientation and enroll their child for the 2012-2013 school year.

Parents who have already enrolled their child will fill out registration forms that evening and attend an orientation session. Parents from last year do not need to attend.

Rainbow Promise Preschool is an outreach program of the United Methodist Church and meets in the southeast corner of the church. They are beginning their 18th year of preschool in Imperial. It is a Christian non-denominational preschool.

Preschool sessions are offered one to three times per week, morning and afternoon, for children ages three to five. Financial aid scholarships are available for qualifying families.

Classes will begin after Labor Day on Sept. 5.
