

Two raffles currently under way, sponsored by Adams Bank & Trust, will benefit Chase County Community Hospital in different ways.

A quilt, created by Joyce Pankonin, will be raffled off Oct. 31, with all proceeds going to the hospital. Tickets are $1 apiece or six for $5.

A Cutest Baby Contest is being held at the same time, with proceeds to purchase supplies for the hospital's nursery, according to coordinator Laura Gaschler.

With 12 babies, up to age 12 months, already entered, voting is beginning. Tickets are $1 apiece or six for $5.

Gaschler said it's not too late to enter a baby in the contest. The voting will be counted Oct. 12.

The winner receives a baby quilt, also made by Pankonin, and a stuffed animal/blanket combination.
