

Staff and family members of the McNair Agency treated Longhorn fans to a free tailgate party Friday night before the football game. With great weather and a football atmosphere, many people enjoyed the event, which has become an annual event for the agency to recognize customers and Longhorn fans. (Republican photos)

