

By Russ Pankonin

The Imperial Republican

Members of the Chase County Community Hospital board of directors are continuing their search for an interim administrator for the hospital.

The board met in a special meeting Dec. 4 and interviewed one candidate via telephone.

The board plans to interview at least one more candidate, according to Renee Fink, the hospital's accountant.

She said the board is also visiting with a firm that places interim administrators.

Two weeks ago, the board dismissed Lola Jones from the administrator position.