

Due to the fact Christmas and New Year's Day fall on Tuesdays this season, printing schedules for The Imperial Republican will be altered for the Dec. 27 and Jan. 3 issues.

On both weeks, The Imperial Republican will print a full day later than the normal Wednesday afternoon schedule. The newspaper each of the next two weeks will be printed and mailed on Thursday, Dec. 27, and Thursday, Jan. 3., meaning subscribers will receive their newspapers a full day later than normal.

Ad and news deadlines for the next two weeks will be at 12 noon on Dec. 26 and Jan. 2. Any copy submitted earlier will be appreciated by staff members.

The Imperial Republican office will be closed all day next Friday, Dec. 28.