

Pheasants and Quail Forever along with the Southwest Prescribed Burn Association will be hosting a day-long training in Palisade to discuss prescribed burning techniques.

The training will be basic training for landowners with limited knowledge and experience of prescribed fire. The basic training will provide presentations on when, why and how to conduct a prescribed burn as well as how to write a prescribed burn plan.

Fire behavior and safety considerations will also be discussed. The training is a good refresher for those that have not had recent training.

The training workshop will be held at the Pioneer Cafe in Palisade from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The cost of the training is $10 which includes a noon meal. Those interested in attending are asked to pre-register for a lunch count.

To pre-register, go to NebraskaPF.com, or call Andy Houser (308)345-4163 ext.3.

Landowners in Red Willow, Hitchcock, Hayes, Perkins, Chase and Dundy Counties are encouraged to attend.
