

The clock is ticking down to the drawing for the Imperial Chamber of Commerce's "Rolling Out the Red Carpet" event. The drawing, during which four couples will be chosen, is Friday.

The four chosen couples will be treated to a chauffeured ride, a catered dinner and baskets of gifts. The dinner will be held at the Lied Imperial Public Library Feb. 9 at 6:30 p.m.

Couples will be treated to a drink at the Eagles Club at 6 p.m., after which they will be driven to the library.

Drawing boxes will still be at participating Chamber businesses until noon on Feb. 1. You must be 18 years of age or older to enter your name.

As of Monday, 49 businesses had donated items for the gift baskets. Last year, 44 businesses participated.

Chamber President Jana Pribbeno said the evening is an excellent way to give a loved one a Valentine treat.
