

The winners of the Imperial Chamber of Commerce "Rolling Out the Red Carpet" contest were drawn Friday. The lucky four and their escorts will be wined and dined Saturday night in celebration of Valentine's Day.

The names of Amanda Courter, Jamilah Bauerle, Amanda Cross and Jenny Moser were drawn from among the 252 entries.

They and their dates will meet at the Imperial Eagles Club at 6 p.m. for a drink, followed by a chauffeured ride to Lied Imperial Public Library.

Dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m., which the public may view by looking through the east window of the library.

The couples will also receive gift baskets filled with items donated by Chamber businesses. A total of 49 donors are participating in the event.
