

By Carolyn Lee

The Imperial Republican

Steve Smith of Steve's Video and Entertainment of Imperial is reaching a milestone this Friday. He is celebrating 20 years of business at 621 Broadway.

The anniversary celebration and customer appreciation will be held Friday from 1-8 p.m. with a number of activities planned.

There will be drawings all day for gift certificates; 25 percent off music CDs and CD storage; 30-50 percent off in-store specials such as caps and t-shirts; $2 VHS movies; $3-12.95 previously viewed DVDs, and on Friday only, patrons may rent two movies or games and get one free.

Steve's Video and Entertainment offers movies, games, music CDs, Husker merchandise, electronics, game accessories, and can special order movies, television series, games and music CDs.

Smith said he wants to thank his customers for helping him "keep the doors open." He noted that many small video businesses haven't made it in the current economic climate.