

About 240 people enjoyed hamburgers during the Nebraska Beef Council/Imperial Super Foods hamburger lunch May 10 in the grocery store parking lot.

The purpose of the event was to promote the consumption of beef during May, known nationally as Beef Month.

Representatives from the Kearney office of the Nebraska Beef Council gave a grilling basket to Daryl Sharp as winner of a drawing, while winners of Super Foods $25 beef certificates were Kara Meeske and John Paisley.