

The Nebraska Wheat Board (NWB) will hold its annual budget meeting on Thursday and Friday, June 13-14, at the Frenchman Valley Coop offices at 202 Broadway St., Imperial, starting at 8 a.m..

Items to be discussed include selection of contracts and a budget for the fiscal year 2013-2014, a strategic plan update, NWB policies and procedures, reports from NWB board members, upcoming events and travel.

The public is welcome to attend any open portion of the meeting. An executive session slated to start at 8:30 a.m. on Friday, June 14, will be closed to the public.

A copy of the agenda will be available on the NWB website, www.nebraskawheat.com, today (Thursday). Interested parties may also contact the NWB office for a copy of the agenda or further information.

The Nebraska Wheat Board administers the check-off of 0.4 percent of net value of wheat marketed in Nebraska at the point of first sale. The board invests the funds in programs of international and domestic market development and improvement, policy development, research, promotion and education.
