

The tour guides who man the I-80 rest stops took a trip around Chase County Saturday, as part of an educational experience. Chase County Tourism Coordinator and Marketing Director Claudette Swanson showed them the Wauneta Roller Mills and Chateau Theater in Wauneta, Enders Reservoir, Champion Mill, the Chase County Museum in Champion, The Balcony House in Imperial, and other Wauneta, Champion and Imperial attractions. Here, the group takes a break with Swanson, third from left, and The Balcony House Bed and Breakfast owner Jim Pirog, fourth from left. The guides will use the tour when promoting Nebraska to travelers. (Republican photo)
