

Several businesses in Imperial have extra punch cards available for the Chamber's holiday promotion that will award a total of $1,000 in Chamber Bucks at two drawings on Dec. 5 and 19.

Shoppers who make a purchase of $10 or more at 36 participating businesses can have their cards punched up to a maximum of $100 per purchase. When the card is full with $200 worth of punches, they can be turned into Pinnacle Bank, Fine Things or the city offices, where they will be placed in the bin for the December drawings.

In addition to the businesses listed above, extra punch cards are also available at The Imperial Republican and both grocery stores.

Another Chamber promotion now underway for local shoppers is the sign-up for two Thanksgiving baskets that will be filled with all the items needed for a Thanksgiving meal. Registrations are being taken at all Chamber businesses through Nov. 15.
