

Chase County Schools' elementary vocal music teacher Amy Walworth's K-3 students ushered in the Christmas season last Thursday with the stage adaptation of "The Mitten" by Alvin Tresselt, which Walworth adapted and directed. At right, kindergarten students act out some of the play, while at below, third grade "frogs" Kirsten Biesecker and Travis Rowley follow Walworth's direction. Other characters in the play, below, were "rabbits," from left, Angel Romero, Megan Baird, Riley Mintling and Katelyn Leibhart. It was a big success, with a lot of colorful costumers. Walworth's grade 4-6 students conclude the concert season tonight (Thursday) at their 7 p.m. program in the auditorium. (Republican photos)

