

Band instructor Agnes Strand shouts out instructions to her musicians on how to keep their lines straight while marching. Strand had her band assembled for practice Monday in preparation for the Chase County Fair parade Saturday as well as the upcoming football and marching season. (Republican photo)