

The annual Halloween Parade of Costumes at Chase County Schools always brings a lot of smiles, and last Wednesday was no different. Madelynn Hanes, left, almost fully enclosed by her pumpkin costume, beams as she parades with her second grade class. Sixth grader Cole Wiest, at right, makes a not-so-subtle comment about referees. (Republican photos)

