Twenty-five high school students earned All A's, or a 4.0 GPA, during the first quarter of the 2012-13 school year at Chase County Schools.

Another 47 students in grades 9-12 made the regular honor roll, which requires a 3.5 to 3.999 GPA, totaling 72 students recognized for their grades the first quarter.

Counselor Trent Herbert released the names last week following completion of the first quarter on Oct. 26.
