

The Christmas concert season is a busy one at Chase County Schools, where three concerts featuring K-12 vocalists and instrumentalists begin next Thursday, Dec. 13.

Next Thursday's concert will feature the high school band, Simply Jazz, the high school chorus and 9th St. Singers.

On Monday, Dec. 17, the fifth and sixth grade bands, junior high band and jazz band, and the junior high chorus and show choir will be on stage.

Directors Agnes Strand and Randy Hayes are coordinating the above two concerts, both which start at 6:30 p.m.

K-6 music director Jodie Liess will present her students in concert Tuesday, Dec. 18, starting at 6 p.m. Separate start times for kindergarten, grades 1-2, 3-4 and 5-6 have been set, allowing parents and others to attend specific concerts or stay for the entire evening.

More on the concerts will follow in next week's issue.
