

Vocalists and band members in grades 5-8 at Chase County Schools entertained the audience at a Dec. 17 Christmas concert. At left, members of the junior high show choir entertained with a medley titled “Santa’s A-Comin’” Above left, eighth graders Rose Sullivan and Alexis Jensen, on flutes, are featured during the junior high numbers. Band Director Agnes Strand seems to be searching for someone in the audience, but she just likes to engage those in attendance during her concerts. (Republican photos)
