

More than 200 junior high students from the six SPVA Conference schools took part in the annual SPVA junior high music clinic Tuesday at Chase County Schools.

Among the group from Chase County Schools were 25 vocalists and another 24 in the band clinic.

The band played selections from “At Sight March” arr. by Larry Clark; “The Water is Wide” arr. by James Swearingen; “Superheroes R Us” arr. by Michael Story; and “The Secrets of McDougal’s Cave” by Ed Huckeby.

The chorus sang “Chili Caliente” by David Giardinieri; “Aurora Borealis (A Song of Alaska)” by Amy F. Bernon; “Mungu Ni Pendo” arr. by Robert Gower; and “Why We Sing” by Jerry Estes.

Here are the 49 students from Chase County who participated.

Choral clinic

Baritones—Bryson Fisher, Ike Maxwell, Dakota Wallin, Andy Lane, Caine Haarberg, Jack Bauerle, Caleb Weiss.

Tenors—Jose Medrano, Nolan Spady, Jace Clevenger.

Altos—Alexis Jensen, Molly Luhrs, Kelly Christensen, Peyton Fiedler, Ansley Wood, Kaley Hauxwell, Lauren Prior.

Sopranos—Megan Engbrecht, Bridgette Odens, Taylin McNair, Katelyn Wheeler, Shaylee Heathers, Mikaela O’Brien, Dawn Castle, Kadyn Milner.

Band clinic

Flutes—Rose Sullivan, Abigail Almanza, Jasmine Dannar, Kayla Schilke.

Clarinets—Kaylee Meeske, Amber Stumpff, Cydney Spady.

Alto sax—Francisco Rodriguez, Jadin Bussell, Josie Peterson, Lauren Gockley.

Bari sax—Ryelee Christensen.

Trumpet—Rogelio Vargas, Emma Ferguson, Cade Francis, Trace Helser.

French horn—Colton Burpo.

Trombone—Zac Space, Garrett Taylor, Destiny Reinke.

Baritone TC—Will Kuenne.

Tuba—Roper McBride.

Percussion—Annie Polly, Sarah Allen.

