

Under the direction of elementary vocal music teacher Jodie Liess, grades three through six at Chase County Schools performed both vocals and on recorder and chime instruments Monday night. Third graders, pictured above, sang a selection including “I’ve Been Working on the Railroad,” “Appalacian Dances” and “Everybody Needs a Friend.” At left, Halle Fiedler performs on a recorder with fellow fourth grade students. (Republican photos)

