

Two Chase County Schools students took first place and two took second place in the ESU #16 Science Olympiad competition in Ogallala March 27.

Justin German and Mason Holmes took first place in the Forensics competition. German and Brian Burpo took second place in the Disease Detectives competition.

Other students attending were Suzy Kasselmann, Cody Cochran and Callin Ledall.

The Olympiad was held at the Keith County Fairgrounds. Other schools attending were Ogallala, Arthur, Perkins County and Wallace.