

The spring concert featuring four different instrumental groups at Chase County Schools gave their spring concert Monday, their finale of the 2012-13 school year. Individual performances were given by the high school concert band, the high school's Simply Jazz, the fifth grade band and sixth grade band. Above left, flutists Jessica Hartman and Kristina Pflum follow the music as they perform "The Washington Post March." Below, Randy Hayes directs two songs played by the sixth grade band, which included "Riverside March" and "Another One Bites the Dust." The 7-12 vocal concert was held Tuesday this week, the 9th St. Singers performance is this Friday, while the K-3 vocalists will perform May 16, followed by the grade 4-6 singers' concert on May 20. (Republican photos)

