

Chase County Schools was well represented at the Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) fall leadership workshop held at the Mid-Plains campus in North Platte Sept. 9. The CCS officer team was challenged by keynote speaker Nick Palkowski to be strong and focused leaders. They also attended workshops giving them ideas on how to utilize social media, increase membership and build their chapter. Members of the 2013-14 FCCLA officer team are, from left, Jake Lueth, Alyssa Moreno, Andrew Vaverek, Mitsy Cardoso, David Almanza, Emma Engbrecht and Shay Eidson. Not pictured—Charlie Ann Carter.
