

CCS high school students selected Ally Vrbas and Khris Kuhlmann, center, as this year's homecoming royalty. The coronation was scheduled for halftime of Friday's game with Cozad but was postponed to Saturday night due to rain. A large crowd attended the coronation, which was held in the school auditorium. Attendants of the king and queen included, at left, Anna Bauerle and Justus Wallin and Kristen Jussel and Korey Krutsinger, right. The kindergarten attendants were Karlie Anderson, front left, and Kye Terryberry. The king and queen received their crowns from last year's royalty, Michael May and Morgan Fisher. (Republican photos)
