

Those attending last Thursday's Halloween costume parade at Chase County Schools were able to see some popular characters, as well as other scary creatures. At right, fourth grader Jesse Krausnick depicted the well-known Willie Robertson from Duck Dynasty. Meanwhile below, this group of creatures, including second grade brothers Brendan and Lessly Pump as the smiling ghosts, had a good time parading with their class. (Republican photos)