

Members of the junior class at Chase County Schools have chosen their candidates for the Prom Saturday night. Candidates from the senior class are, from left, Jodi Koellner, Calen Griffin, Korey Krutsinger, Bridget Langin, Dan Sullivan, Anna Bauerle and Justus Wallin. Not pictured—Tapainga Kahle. This year's Prom will have "A Night in Paris" theme as students and their dates gather in the Wellington gymnasium for the dance. The public is invited to the promenade starting at 7 p.m. in the gym, which will follow the prom-goers' 5:30 p.m. dinner at the St. Patrick Parish Hall. Following the dance, the prom-goers have been invited to the Post-Prom Party at the school on East 9th St. Parents and other volunteers are planning casino games and other fun activities. This year, all who attend the Post-Prom Party are expected to receive two prizes after the night's events, if they signed up to attend. Junior class sponsors are Virginia Harford and Lindsey Tomaso.
