

Chase County Schools was alive with pirates last Thursday night, as the Imperial Education Association sponsored a family night during the week of Arts Festival. "A Treasure Chest of Learning" featured decorated doorways, games, a display of the new mosaic which will be placed at the swimming pool house, and more. Above, teacher Dennis Batterman plays the coconut shuffle with students.

At right, Bryson Fisher, left, and Caine Haarberg play a pirate game. (Republican photos)

